Hinduism is the coming together of thousands of thought processes which have taken millennia to form. In many ways it is like a huge conglomerate rock. In the conglomerate rock, the binding elements are the sticky silt and earthy chemicals; likewise, the conglomerate that is Hinduism is bound together by the elements of a common philosophy, heritage and culture.

Hinduism: A Conglomerate presents a panoramic and chronological view of this ancient religion, and tries to reinforce the binding element of our composite culture which is seemingly getting weaker and weaker every day.
