Flicker and his little sister Flame are just two of the many candles that call Candlestick City home. In this dark city the candles are not even aware that they possess the ability to carry light until they meet The Light-giver. Is he as mean as the other candles say he is? Will they melt if they receive his light.

In this delightful children's story the young candles discover the benefits of their design and the transforming power of a life filled with light. It is a story to uncover truths about our Creator and the incredible image bearers he has designed each one to be.

Elementary teachers, home schoolers and family members of all ages, will enjoy this as a read-a-loud filled with many life-giving truths to solidify in the lives of their children.
