Street Food from Around the World: Easy Quick Meals to Cook at Home Troth Wells

Sizzling, stirring, grilling, steaming. In her latest cookbook Street Food From Around the World, Troth Wells evokes the world of street food where young and old, rich and poor enjoy delicious, fresh tastes from vendors around the world. Journey through Africa, Latin America, the Middle East and Asia, while you learn how to create popular street food recipes. Simple to make, fun and quick all recipes are adapted for Western kitchens with easy-to-follow instructions, preparation and cooking times. Wells also suggests alternatives for ingredients which may be hard to find. Most of the recipes are vegetarian or can be easily adapted, and there are many options for vegans. Information on ways to support fair trade and organic producers is also included.

Over fifty full-page, mouth-watering food photos are paired with travel photos and anecdotes from travellers to create this inspirational, informative and entertaining book. Additionally, in her fascinating introduction Wells contributes her perspective on the cultural importance of street food as well as its economic and social impact on communities.
