General Cao Cao is coming from the north. He wants to control all of China. But there are strong generals in the south who are ready to fight him. The problem is that Cao Cao's army is very large. How can the smaller army in the south fight him? They need a clever man to lead them. Zhou Yu believes Zhuge Liang might be that man. But can Zhuge Liang be trusted? The fate of China may be decided as the armies meet to battle at Red Cliffs.
