La casa en el confín de la tierra (Spanish Edition) W. Hope Hodgson

Decía Lovecraft: «La casa en el confín de la tierra (1908) -quizá la mejor de todas las obras de Hodgson- trata de un caserón solitario y temido de Irlanda, que constituye el centro de espantosas fuerzas del trasmundo y soporta el asedio de híbridas y blasfemas anomalías que surgen de secretos abismos inferiores. Los vagabundeos del espíritu del narrador durante ilimitados años-luz del espacio cósmico y kalpas de eternidad y su asistencia a la destrucción final del sistema solar, son algo casi único en la literatura fantástica. Por lo demás, a lo largo de la historia se pone de manifiesto la capacidad del autor para sugerir horrores vagos y emboscados en un escenario natural.»
