Against the Rules (The Boundaries Series) A.R. Barley

Kelly O'Connor's out of control An RA at Halton University, he spends his off nights at a club, hoping to find what he's looking for in rough sex with strangers. Until one night the play gets a little too rough. An isolated room, a dangerous situation...and an unexpected rescue. Ian Larkin knows what Kelly wants—a true Dom, someone who will protect him instead of using him, someone who can take him to the edge without pushing him into unsafe territory. Ian knows just what Kelly needs, and he's the only man who can give it to him. There's only one problem: Kelly is a student, and Ian is a teacher. This book is approximately 50,000 words
