Feminist Film Studies Karen Hollinger

Feminist Film Studies is a readable, yet comprehensive textbook for introductory classes in feminist film theory and criticism.

Karen Hollinger provides an accessible overview of women's representation and involvement in film, complemented by analyses of key texts that illustrate major topics in the field. Key areas include:

- a brief history of the development of feminist film theory
- the theorization of the male gaze and the female spectator
- women in genre films and literary adaptations
- the female biopic
- feminism and avant-garde and documentary film
- women as auteurs
- lesbian representation
- women in Third Cinema.

Each chapter includes a "Films in Focus" section, which analyzes key texts related to the chapter's major topic, including examples from classical Hollywood, world cinema, and the contemporary period.

This book provides students in both film and gender/women's studies with a clear introduction to the field of feminist film theory and criticism.
