Alejandro Romanov (Spanish Edition) Silvia Miguens

La vida del zar Alejandro estuvo llena de contradicciones, de melancolía y de remordimiento, su misteriosa y prematura muerte le convirtió en una leyenda.

Alejandro Romanov accedió al trono de Rusia tras colaborar con unos conspiradores que acabarían asesinando a su propio padre, esa circunstancia le marcaría para toda la vida. Educado por su abuela Catalina la Grande heredaría de ella su afinidad con los ilustrados franceses y su idea de modernizar Rusia y dotarla de unas instituciones como las que tenían los ingleses. En Alejandro Romanov el escritor León Tólstoi y el maestro Fiodor Kuzmich narran la historia de este zar, melancólico, culto y autócrata a la vez que investigan la prematura y misteriosa muerte del nieto de Catalina en su viaje a Crimea.

Con su estilo característico, cuidado y reconocible, Silvia Miguens edifica ante nosotros el S. XIX europeo y construye una novela en la que confluyen Rousseau, Napoleón, Catalina la Grande y Tólstoi. Pero además de recrear la época y las personalidades con cuidado detalle, penetra en la compleja psicología del zar Alejandro y nos trae a un hombre cargado de culpa y en el que se debaten continuamente una cultura que le inclina a democratizar y modernizar Rusia y una personalidad vanidosa que le lleva a mostrarse cada vez más autócrata, más injusto e incluso más cruel.

Razones para comprar la obra:

- La figura de Alejandro Romanov es esencial para entender la mayoría de los avatares del S. XIX europeo.
- La novela no solo analiza la complicada mentalidad del zar, también, como telón de fondo, analiza las cuestiones políticas del XIX tan determinantes para la época actual.
- El zar Alejandro Romanov sirvió de inspiración a un coloso de la literatura como Tólstoi que, en esta novela, es narrador de los hechos.
- La autora es una escritora de reconocido prestigio que ha escrito otras novelas sobre la dinastía Romanov.

Una novela compleja narrada con dos voces que intenta desentrañar los motivos para actuar de una personalidad igualmente compleja: el zar Alejandro Romanov. La autora consigue hacernos llegar toda la belleza de la época y del personaje retratado.

“Silvia Miguens ha escrito algo más que una novela histórica: ha escrito un verdadero manual de la Historia de Rusia de finales del siglo XVIII y principios del XIX acercando al lector a una de las familias con más leyenda de Europa: los Romanov.”(Web Anika entre libros)

“Silvia Miguens, con un estilo narrativo ágil y preciso, desgana la interesante trayectoria de un zar que nunca deseó gobernar. En esta apasionante novela descubrirá la palpitante vida de este joven zar, Alejandro I, que debe enfrentarse a una compleja telaraña de intrigas políticas, sociales y religiosas, mientras, más allá de sus fronteras.”(Blog La utopía de Casiopea)
