All the beautiful prose in this book come from famous great men, such as Zhu Xiang's "book", Feng Zikai's "reading", Lu Xun's "reading gossip", and He Qifang's "never believe all you read", etc. Although these article are all about books and reading feelings, their opinions are different. Some are about bitterness and sweet of reading, and some are about feelings of buying and collecting books. All these pathologies and experience come from the author's undergo, feelings, and experience, and even experience derived from personality, temperament and interest. So, these views are positive and upward, and all shine with the brilliance of the truth.
