Una luz en la ventana (Titania época) (Spanish Edition) Christine Dodd

Cuando se ve obligada a partir hacia el castillo de lord Peter, lady Saura Roget tiene la esperanza de que se trate del cambio de vida con el que ha soñado. Su gris existencia bajo el dominio de su cruel padrastro dará por fin un vuelco. O al menos es lo que ella cree. Al llegar a su nueva residencia, conoce a sir William de Miraval, el heredero de lord Peter. Descuidado y con pocos modales, nada tiene sentido para William desde que perdió la vista. Su ceguera le ha hecho perder casi todo el contacto con la realidad. Encerrado en su propio mundo, el noble no entiende por qué su padre ha traído a esta mujer a la casa. Una joven que parece una monja por sus hábitos y educación, pero con una personalidad fuerte y determinada, que intenta imponerse en cada rincón del castillo. El tiempo que comparten le permiten conocerla cada vez más, hasta sentir que se convierte en la luz que lo vuelve a conectar con lo que le rodea.
